

CLAIMS

What is claimed is:

5

1. A plastic forming apparatus for making plastic articles from particulate plastic materials, comprising:

at least one male and one female mold capable of being heated;

a tipping axis attached to at least one of the molds for dumping excess

10 particulate material from the mold; and a cooling means for cooling the mold after it has been heated.